

BECOME THE LEADER YOU ARE MEANT TO BE.

THE ORANGE HIGH SCHOOL MARINE CORPS JROTC

The Marine Corps JROTC is a leadership education program that helps young adults develop character and self-discipline through a dynamic learning environment anchored in a military structure. Marine Corps JROTC cadets form a cohesive team that engages with the community through color guard, drill team, field trips and civic service projects, while learning a multitude of skills including first aid, emergency preparedness, marksmanship and self-defense.

THE JAMES H. FEARNS 2024

MARINE CORPS JROTC MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP

CONGRATULATIONS

Congratulations to the 2024 recipients of the Marine Corps JROTC Memorial Scholarship, established to honor the memory of Master Gunnery Sergeant James H. Fearn, the civic leader and combat Marine veteran who obtained Orange High School's JROTC program charter. The scholarship is awarded on the basis of academic achievement, personal leadership and a commitment to excellence.

THANK YOU FOR HONORING THE EXAMPLE SET BY MGYSGT FEARNS, AND KEEPING FAITH WITH HIS COMMITMENT TO BOTH THE MARINE CORPS AND TO EDUCATION.
